The Voices and Visions: Revisiting the 1863 Ruby Valley Treaty of Peace and Friendship is a cultural and educational event that will assist the Noowuh Knowledge Center in the preservation of Newe cultural, political, social, and environmental history, intended for the present and future generations. This event is made possible with a grant from the Sven and Astrid Liljeblad Endowment Fund, University of Nevada.

By attending the gathering/conference, you give your permission for any video and audio tapes and/or photographs made during this project to be used for research and or educational purposes, including publications, exhibitions, World Wide Web, and presentations. The recordings and photographs created during the event will be archived by the Noowuh Knowledge Center. By giving your permission, you do not give up any copyright or performance rights that you may hold.
